"Our death for the good cause should be the seal of our revolutionary action. The constant and firm actions for our cause will be the hallmark of our lives as Communist combatants. This is what we have understood the best. That is why the positive weighs so much more in us." - Chairman Gonzalo

Today we commemorate the third anniversary of the departure of comrade Joselo. We do so in the midst of many difficulties; the stoking of the contradictions between oppressed nations and imperialism; in the bankruptcy of bureaucratic capitalism, in the pressing need for a barrier to semi-feudalism and the construction of New Power. It is difficult to replace or fill the gaps left by comrades like Joselo; but we still have his legacy, his trace, in that measure we walk unequivocally and unrenounceably to victory. “Old mole”, fierce builder of the Party and of the organization in the heart of the poor peasants; combatant, organizer of misery, without his contribution we would hardly be where we are, facing the sun, getting closer in ideology and struggle, confronting the pending tasks; we still have much to do, we have to comply, especially with that which “the encirclers will be encircled; the annihilators will be annihilated, the victors will be defeated; and the beast will finally be cornered, and the roar of our armed voices will make them tremble with fear and they will end up dead of fear, converted into a few black ashes”.

Comrade Joselo; you will eternally live in the hearts and struggles of the class and oppressed peoples of the world.

Hoy, el maoísmo enfrenta situaciones similares;
y como siempre lo nuevo y el marxismo se han abierto paso a través de la lucha, el maoísmo así también se impondrá y será reconocido.
