

Proletarians of all countries, unite!

Everything is Illusory Except Power!¹

The congress is the offspring of two great parents, the Party and the People's War.
Everything is illusory except power!

Centuries sink, idols fall, an old order of oppression breaks, and on the mountain, a flash of fire splits the night with its great dagger
and on the mountain, a flash of fire
splits the night with its great dagger

The seas are stormy, the storm rages on and in the great disorder, the Sun rises everything is illusory except power!
assault the heavens with the force of the gun
everything is illusory except power
assault the heavens with the force of the gun

Peasant workers, break your chains raise the banner of the People's War everything is illusory except power storm the heavens with the force of the gun
everything is illusory except power
storm the heavens with the force of the gun

The Communist Party leads to a new life doubt and fear vanish like smoke we have the strength, the future is ours Communism is the goal and it will become reality
we have the strength, the future is ours
Communism is the goal and it will become reality

Everything is illusory except power
assault the heavens with the force of the gun
everything is illusory except power
assault the heavens with the force of the gun
