

LONG LIVE CHAIRMAN GONZALO AND HIS ALMIGHTY THOUGHT, SHINING LIGHT AND MAOIST ROAR

Communist Party of Peru

September 2019

“After the defeat of the revolution in 1927, the subjective forces of the revolution have indeed been considerably weakened. There is very little left of them, it is natural that those comrades who judge things only by appearances have pessimistic ideas. But if one examines the essence of things, one sees a completely different picture. Here an old Chinese proverb comes to mind: ‘A single spark can set prairie on fire.’ In other words, our forces, though very small now, will develop very rapidly. Under China’s conditions, their development is not only possible, but practically inevitable.”

Selected Works, Chairman Mao Zedong, Vol. II page 127.

The Communist Party of Peru, expresses its full and complete subjection to our invincible and almighty ideology, Marxism-Leninism-Maoism, Gonzalo Thought, we reaffirm once again in Chairman Gonzalo as the leader of the party and the revolution, continuator of Marx, Lenin and Chairman Mao Zedong, it was our leadership who confirmed the invincibility and universality of the People’s War as the military theory of the international proletariat and the peoples of the world, we uphold, defend and apply Gonzalo Thought as the creative application of Marxism-Leninism-Maoism to our concrete reality because he founded that Maoism is the third, new and superior stage of Marxism and we will not cease in the ardent struggle to impose Maoism as the command and guide of the world proletarian revolution. The party once again calls upon the communist parties and organizations to constitute or reconstitute themselves, as the case may be, around and subject to our all-powerful ideology Marxism-Leninism-Maoism, mainly Maoism, to initiate and develop people's wars against the imperialist pretensions of world wars for their infamous interests. It is correct to state that there are contributions of universal validity of Chairman Gonzalo to the world proletarian revolution.

27 years have passed
It remains unscathed, steadfast and shining bright.
What has been done is never lost
It taught us to take up again, to re-energize and re-organize
Let the spark spread like bonfires
Fire is inevitable
We have our source
Let us empower the flow of the river.
Attacks and denials there will be every day
They sound even ridiculous and immature
The complicit silence
Visceral hatreds
Will never be able to silence the roar
It is thought made transforming action
He is chairman Gonzalo

The Party, on the occasion of the 27th anniversary of Chairman Gonzalo's public appearance on September 24th, once again sends greetings to the international proletariat and the peoples of the world. They should know that we are guided by what Chairman Mao Zedong established: "...Rebellion is justified. For thousands of years, it was said that it was just to oppress, it was just to exploit, and it was wrong to rebel. This verdict was only reversed with the emergence of Marxism. This is a great contribution. It was through struggle that the proletariat learned this truth, and Marx drew the conclusion. And from this truth, the resistance, struggle, and fight for socialism continue." It says that it is just to rebel against the oppressor and exploiter, centuries of infamies and evils that are raised against oppressed nations and peoples of the world. On May 17, 1980, a new great wave emerged to bury vile imperialism, worldwide and native reaction, and the putrefied vestiges of old and new revisionism. It is a new historical period. One possibility was the restoration of capitalism, but as a counterpoint to this restoration, the revolution is also proclaimed because it is inevitable. Maoism is clear and distinct.

Likewise, we greet each of the leaders, cadres, and militants of the heroic combatant, and the fighters of the People's Liberation Army, as well as the masses who closely embrace with optimism the just and correct process of the party's general reorganization. To the proletariat and heroic Peruvian people, both from the countryside and the city, masses that daily show us heroic examples of unwavering dedication, valuable lives offered together with their courageous blood in the roar of the class struggle, it is fierce, they are sickles in the field where the roar sounds like war drums, together with the proletariat and the people, we must strike like a hammer, the struggle in the cities. No one can tie their hands to justify capitulation, there will be problems when you dare, the masses clamor, demand from the party, and we cannot be deaf and blind to such responsibility.

Chairman Gonzalo clearly warned us that, the deeper the general crisis of Peruvian society, mainly under bureaucratic capitalism, the greater the reactionary and repressive response of the old State against the just struggles of agricultural laborers, miners, mainly impoverished peasants, teachers, healthcare workers, university students, transport workers, laborers, workers, people, and native and indigenous communities, etc. An unequivocal expression of the sharpening of class struggle and the collusion and strife between the two factions of the great bourgeoisie, there is an absolute concentration of power that this fascist government of Vizcarra has been developing. This centralization is aimed at guaranteeing the sinister, genocidal, and predatory ambitions of imperialism, mainly the Yankee imperialism, against the Peruvian people. They criminalize the struggles in defense of their freedoms, rights, and achievements. The class and the masses, in general, respond with a growing wave of protest against these reactionary ambitions. The Defender's Office, until July 2019, has reported over 184 mass struggles, with 120 having a national scope, 40 regional, and 17 local. These struggles revolve around issues such as mining, pollution, education, labor rights, the right to strike, wages, working conditions, increasing overexploitation, etc. The people's war, which began in 1980, is stirring and will continue to intensify its vigorous flame so that the heroic Peruvian people can build their popular republic based on the principles of the new democracy. This can only be achieved under the leadership of the party, the Communist Party of Peru, Marxist-Leninist-Maoist, Gonzalo Thought. Generating expectations through "early elections," "new congress," "new constitution," or "constituent assembly" only serves the rearrangement and the dark interests of this old reactionary state. It does not serve, nor will it ever serve, the Peruvian proletariat and people.

It is important to point out that the people's war that began on May 17, 1980, was preceded by two decades of fervent struggle against revisionists and opportunists who opposed the reconstitution of the party, resisted being guided by Marxism-Leninism, Mao Zedong thought, and specifically opposed the initiation of armed struggle. The people's war developed in our country demonstrated the correctness of these ideas that guided its inception; they were decisions and strategic development plans that forged us in the inexorable march of revolution. We are optimistic and combat pessimism. We fight against the right opportunist line of surrender and enlistment, the black flag that structured its "new line" in prisons, as they themselves called it, "a new definition, decision, etc., etc." Clearly, it is a line contrary to that of the PCP, followed by a left opportunist line headed by the anti-Maoists, anti-party, and anti-Gonzalo Thought "José" and his comrades, a feud that sinks in negotiations and betrayals of the reactionary wage earners. To crush these denials against Maoism, our leadership, Gonzalo Thought, the party, the people's war, the new power, and the uninterrupted democratic revolution until communism has been and continues to be our task, always putting politics in command, as Maoism states. Because if we do not put politics in command, then we put another politics in command, one that is bourgeois or petit-bourgeois or any other but not proletarian. It is very clear, and this irrefutable truth, ratified in the I Congress, is necessary and forceful, despite others wanting to deny and erase it.

The public presentation of our leadership was never a circus, much less a prelude to surrender. Perhaps that's true for the enemies of the revolution, but not for the party. For us, it is and will continue to be an all-powerful light that illuminates the just and correct path of the people's war. Pessimism? How could we be pessimistic about the triumph of the revolution in our country when our people have an inexorably certain and valid law. September 24th has always illuminated us, and today more than ever, we declare that it is and will be a weapon of combat to confront and resolve the new and complex problems that the turning point presented. That is what we continue to do in the process of the party's general reorganization. Let us not forget that Chairman Gonzalo declared that the Peruvian revolution is part of the world revolution, and by developing the people's war, we serve the New Great Wave of the World Proletarian Revolution. Initiating and developing people's wars around the world serves to crush the sinister general counterrevolutionary offensive led by Yankee imperialism colluding with imperialist powers. Pessimism? Not under any circumstances.

“Today, reality is one; the same contenders from World Wars I and II are generating, are preparing the new Third World War. We must know this, and we, as children of an oppressed country, are part of the booty. We cannot consent to it! Enough of imperialist exploitation! We must put an end to them! We are from the third world, and the third world is the base of the world proletarian revolution, with one condition: that the Communist Parties raise and lead it. That’s what needs to be done!”<sup>1</sup> to highlight the importance of oppressed nations, which will serve as the foundation for the world proletarian revolution, and the immediate need to generate Maoist Communist Parties that carry out People’s War in order to properly advance the new great wave of world revolution and establish Maoism as the leadership and guide... Let imperialists, reactionaries, and revisionists know that Maoism is being embodied by communist parties and organizations around the world. It is part of the pending task of the International Communist Movement (ICM) in continuous development, and there are concrete facts of contribution and universally valid contributions by Chairman Gonzalo.

Today, we are about to commemorate the 30th anniversary of the everlasting milestone of victory represented by the I Marxist Congress, Marxist-Leninist-Maoist Congress, Gonzalo Thought, child of the party and the people’s war, and it must be a cause for celebration for Maoist communists and revolutionaries around the world because it is a milestone, a precise foundation, and defense of Maoism. It was defined as the third, new, and superior stage of Marxism, aiming to apply Maoism for the conquest of power. But power for whom? For the proletariat, for the dictatorship of the proletariat, based on an armed force led by the Communist Party. The I Congress had and still has great prospects for the development of socialism’s construction and the uninterrupted continuation of the revolution under the dictatorship of the proletariat as a great proletarian cultural revolution.
