

A “Humanist” Poem For The Pigs

SEPTEMBER 17, 2020

STRUGGLESSESSIONS

A "HUMANIST"

By 3/4 dead

Officer, you are a pig...
Because you have denied us the dignity of humans with your batons and formations with your law and your order

Helmets to protect your pigheadedness armor to protect your greedy selfish little pig hearts Boots to step on our necks chains to string us up, this is the anatomy of a pig

We rebel so that we might attain human status only in your blood will this be accomplished and once the pig inside of you has been slaughtered you too can become a human being

We must show the people who want to be humans that you are vulnerable that y'all bleed
When we rebel, we are doing the both of us a service so die with or without dignity then you bastards!
